Hi Tomek,

I'm writing to tell you some exciting news. My parents, who always wanted to try a different way of life, have bought ... a houseboat! They started looking for it in April and shortly afterwards, in May, we became the proud owners of a houseboat which we named Dream. We've lived on the boat since July. It's an incredible way to live. There's no traffic and that terrible city noise. Instead, we're close to nature, and we've got some amazing views.

The boat's got four bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a living room with a kitchen. I absolutely love my room. I even helped my dad paint it. The walls are white and I've got photos in black frames. There's a very comfortable dark blue sofa and a striped red and black rug on the floor. I think it looks great! I love looking at ducks and swans swimming past my bedroom window.

Living on a boat in London means that we often move from one place to another. One week we're in Little Venice, the next we've moved to Regent's Canal. We can stay in one place for up to fourteen days, and then we have to find another place. I don't go to school as my parents have chosen home education for me. That means I have more time for myself now. I'm doing a lot of reading when I'm not busy, and I'd like to start taking photos of the places we visit to make an album. Anyway, we can't imagine living on land again!

You must come here with Marek. Can't wait to see you!

Take care,

Jack

Cześć, Marku!

Przed chwilą przeczytałem maila od Jacka. Wyobraź sobie, że jego rodzice kupili łódź mieszkalną i od (1) na niej mieszkają. Jest całkiem duża – znajdują się na niej (2) sypialnie, dwie łazienki i kuchnia. Rodzinie Jacka odpowiada mieszkanie blisko natury. Jack ma swój pokój – nawet pomógł swojemu tacie pomalować go na (3) . Rodzina Jacka przemieszcza się z jednej dzielnicy miasta do drugiej. Nie mogą jednak przebywać w jednym miejscu dłużej niż (4) . Z tego powodu Jack uczy się w domu z rodzicami i nie musi chodzić do szkoły. Dzięki temu ma sporo czasu na (5) . Jack zaprasza nas do siebie. Musimy zdecydować, jaki prezent moglibyśmy mu kupić.

Tomek

AMERICAN HOUSES

Houses in the United States are getting larger. Today's modern house is almost twice as large as it was 40 years ago. Children no longer have to share a bunk (1) with their brother or sister as homes also have more bedrooms than ever. They save more energy than in the past too. Electrical (2) such as refrigerators, ovens, and air conditioning, all use much less energy. At the same time, the number of people living in each house has become (3) . In the 1970s, there were 3.01 people living in the average house. Today, there are only 2.54 people.

- 5 In pairs or as a group, discuss the questions.

- Do you share a bedroom with someone else? Is it better to share, or to have a room of your own?
- Would you prefer to live in a big house or a small house? Why?

- 1 Draw a simple plan of your house or flat in your notebook. Describe the rooms on the plan to your partner.

*This is the bedroom. It's next to the kitchen.
It's quite big and has a nice bed in it.*

- 2 In your notebook, put the parts of this letter into the correct order.

a But that's okay because the flat is lovely. It's large and sunny. There are three bedrooms, a huge living room, a kitchen, a bathroom, and a big balcony.

b The only bad thing is that it's further from my school. I now have to take a bus.

c *Come and visit me soon!
Bye for now!
Joanna*

d I'm writing to tell you my exciting news – we've moved to a new flat! I love it! I have my own bedroom so no more sharing with my sister!

e Hi Susan,

f How have you been? I hope you're well!

- 3 How did you decide on the order of the three main paragraphs in the letter?

- 4 Which of these points did Joanna cover in her letter?

- 1 Opisz przeprowadzkę do nowego mieszkania.
- 2 Poinformuj kolegę/koleżankę o przeprowadzce.
- 3 Opisz swoje nowe mieszkanie.
- 4 Opisz okolicę, w której mieszkasz.
- 5 Wyjaśnij, dlaczego twoja rodzina wybrała to mieszkanie.
- 6 Opisz jedną rzecz, która nie podoba ci się w twoim nowym miejscu zamieszkania.

- 5 Read the writing task. Copy the chart into your notebook and complete the information. Use your imagination.

Podczas remontu twojego domu/mieszkania zatrzymałeś/zatrzymałaś się u dziadków, co ci nie odpowiada. W liście do kolegi z USA:

- wyjaśnij, dlaczego mieszkasz z dziadkami;
- opisz ich dom/mieszkanie;
- napisz, co nie podoba ci się w mieszkaniu twoich dziadków.

List powinien zawierać od 50 do 120 słów.

	Questions to ask and answer	Your notes
1	Why are you staying with your grandparents? Where is their home?
2	How many rooms are there? What is your bedroom like? Is there a garden or balcony?
3	What do you not like about staying at your grandparents' house? Why?

TIP Pamiętaj, aby w liście odnieść się do wszystkich trzech punktów z zadania. Zwykle warto przekazać informacje w tej samej kolejności, w jakiej podane są w poleceniu. Po napisaniu pracy sprawdź, czy informacje zawarte w liście logicznie się ze sobą łączą.

A HOUSE OR NOT A HOUSE?

A "One-Sqm House" is a small wooden structure which takes up only one square metre of space. It is probably the smallest house in the world. It was designed by an architect from Berlin, Van Bo Le-Mentzel.

The house has a window and a door. It weighs about 40 kilos and is 2 metres tall. (1)  You can put it almost anywhere: outdoors, in your garden, in a park or at a campsite, or inside your house, garage, or any other open space – to have some privacy. (2)  You can also lie down and take a rest – or even sleep – if you turn it on its side. You can construct your own one-sqm house at a workshop in Berlin. The workshop takes one day and you have to pay only for the materials. (3)  When you visit Berlin, you can also stay in a house like this for 1 euro per night. There is a bathroom and kitchen to use in a hotel nearby. (4)  I'm not so sure.

Parents, let sleeping teenagers lie

If you are tired at 11 p.m. and dream of going to bed while your teenage daughter or son is playing a computer game, chatting to friends or watching something online, don't worry. This is a normal thing with teens. While most adults start to produce melatonin (the hormone which helps us sleep) around 10 p.m., teenagers begin to produce it at about 1 a.m. We don't know if it is caused by the changes in the brain, or by their habits (the light from computer and TV screens may keep the brain from falling asleep). However, we do know that teens need more sleep than they get as they grow up. Some schools in America, which start their classes later, have already started noticing positive changes in their pupils' learning.

Subject: Request for a meeting

Dear Hanna,

I have recently talked to my pupils about the differences between schools in the US and Poland in my English classes. We have also read an article about the differences between sleeping habits of adults and teenagers. The pupils would like to invite you to a meeting to discuss the possibility of starting classes in our school one hour later. Could we meet anytime next week?

Best regards,

Melinda May

CHOOSING A PROFESSION

Which job would you like to do when you're older? Why?

- 6 In your notebook, complete the text with the words in the box.

• earn • salary • overtime • unemployed
• commute • apply • work • find • promoted

GETTING THE RIGHT JOB FOR YOU

Why do we need to work? One answer is that people like doing things. Another answer is money! If you're (1) unemployed, you probably don't have enough money. If, on the other hand, you have a well-paid job, you (2) earn a high (3) salary which you can use to buy the things you need.

Before you (4) apply for a job, you should ask yourself some key questions. Are you happy to (5) commute to work every day? Some people like driving to work in the morning. Others don't and prefer to (6) work from home. Are you happy to work (7) overtime? (This is when you work extra hours for more money.) Is it the kind of job where you can get (8) promoted soon and earn more money? If you ask yourself the right questions, you'll (9) find the right job!

- 8 In pairs, take turns to answer the questions in the Checklist in exercise 7. Make a note of your partner's answers in your notebook. Then suggest a suitable job for your partner.

I think Basia could work as a computer programmer. She is very good at maths and she likes working alone.

- 9 12 Listen to three people talking about their working life and answer the questions in your notebook. Sometimes more than one answer is possible.

Which of the speakers (1, 2 or 3) ...

1 is unemployed?	4 works overtime?
2 commutes?	5 got promoted?
3 is well paid?	6 has applied for a new job?

- 10 In your notebook, write questions that you can ask someone about their job. Then interview a member of your family or a friend who speaks English. Write a short report about their job.

- What time do you start work?
- How long does it take you to get to work?
- Do you think your job is stressful?

- 7 In your notebook, match the highlighted words or phrases in the Career Checklist with definitions a–j.

- the number of hours per week you work and the time / days
- a job or jobs you have done before
- characteristics
- someone who can influence and manage others
- things you are good at
- people you work with
- the ability to talk to people clearly
- in a different country
- a short biography including your qualifications and experience
- people can trust you to do what you say

To: Marta

Dear Marta,

I'm spending my holidays at my grandparents' place in the small town of Wexford, about ninety miles south of Dublin. You won't believe what happened when I arrived. My grandparents' neighbours have their own restaurant. This year they are very busy and need extra people to serve customers. So when they met me, they offered me a part-time job. At first, I wasn't sure whether to accept it or not, but my grandpa said that at the age of sixteen I could try to earn my own money. So I agreed. They asked me to work at the sandwich bar. My duties are quite simple. I use fresh vegetables, meat, bread or club rolls and make take-away sandwiches. I always start working when the restaurant opens at 10 am and finish at 3 pm. I could work longer but I think five hours a day is enough. This leaves me some time to hang out with the other kids in the neighbourhood and do some sightseeing. I've already bought some clothes with the money I've earned. I hope to save enough for a new MP4 player. Anyway, I enjoy working here. The bosses are very kind to me and they are happy I work for them.

I'll write to you soon.

Take care,

Jane

SO, YOU WANT TO HAVE A JOB?

If you are 14, a British national, and you want to find a job, there are quite a few opportunities for you. The law does not allow 14-year-olds to work part-time in restaurants, bars and most shops. However, teens can start with their own home and their area, because there are quite a few things they can do there, such as taking the rubbish out, tidying up, washing cars or gardening. British teenagers sometimes do the shopping for elderly neighbours or take their dog for a walk. Another popular part-time job is babysitting – looking after the kids of their parents' friends or neighbours when they want to go out. Pet sitting is also an option when the owners are away on holiday. Some teenagers also hand out leaflets, advertising pizzas or other takeaway food. But no matter which job they choose, British teens cannot work more than 14 hours a week during term time, and 25 hours during the school holidays. It's a good opportunity to earn some money and get work experience. And, even if they are not well-paid, they learn how to find work, how to decide what their strengths are and how to work on communication skills, which might be very useful in their future careers.

- 1 Why can't 14-year-olds in Britain work in restaurants and most shops?
- 2 What jobs can they do for their elderly neighbours?
- 3 What kind of jobs connected with animals can teenagers do?
- 4 How many hours can British teens work per week during the school year?

DISAPPEARING JOBS

A lot of people wonder if the job they do will disappear because a robot or a computer will replace them. Some research (1) recently which shows that this is the price we pay for progress. Yes, some jobs will disappear, but this has always been the case. Take the job of a shoemaker, for example. In the past, people used to keep their shoes for a long time because they (2) expensive and so people needed someone to repair them. Now, you can buy cheap shoes (3) , so people don't need shoemakers anymore. Unless they go zero waste, that is. Personally, I feel quite concerned about the fact that such jobs may disappear, as I feel we should repair (4) that can be repaired – and use it for as long as possible.

- 1 Read the note below. Then work in pairs and discuss if you like the idea of the Slow Movement.

SLOW FOOD

The Slow Movement is a cultural trend in which people try to slow down the tempo of their life. It has an effect on different aspects of lifestyle and culture. For example, an organisation called Slow Food promotes traditional cooking and local food as an alternative to fast food. It started in Italy in 1986, but it's become popular all over the world.

- 2 Work in pairs or groups. What do you think the expressions in the box mean?

- 3 OPEN TASK Przeczytaj tekst o Disco Soup Day, a następnie na jego podstawie uzupełnij luki 1–5 w notatce, którą wykorzystasz w szkolnej prezentacji. Luki należy uzupełnić w języku polskim. Odpowiedzi zapisz w zeszycie.

WORLD DISCO SOUP DAY

The idea of protesting against food waste and organising Schnippeldisko – 'Disco Soup' – was born in Berlin in 2012. People from Slow Food Germany and other organisations wanted to save supermarket and restaurant food that would go to waste. They collected all kinds of vegetables, like cabbages, onions or potatoes, which were 'too small', 'too short', 'too big' or just 'too ugly'. 8000 people took part in the first Disco Soup: they peeled and chopped up the vegetables and cooked the 'protest soup' while hanging out, listening to music and dancing.

The concept of preparing a protest soup has developed into World Disco Soup Day, which is now popular all over the world. Statistics show that about 30% of the food produced is wasted. What better way to inform a lot of people about this problem than by giving a party? It is a free event, open to all. If it is not organised in your area, you can make your own Disco Soup Day – check social media groups to get some information/advice.

- 4 In pairs or groups, discuss the questions below.

- Would you like to take part in / organise a Disco Soup Day? Why (not)?
- Have you ever been to any food event of this kind in Poland?

Y: Yuck! It ! I think we've added too much salt.

3 X: Jack, to eat that slice of bread, or can I have it?

Y: Sure, help yourself.

- 6 In groups, brainstorm ideas for organising a Disco Soup Day in your area. Think about:

DIFFICULT MENU DECISIONS

How do you decide where to eat out? Some people ask their friends for advice. Others read restaurant (1) and look for places which have the best opinions. You can also use Internet websites which will find the perfect place for you, depending on what you're looking for: ethnic food or local food, a small bistro or a fancy restaurant. I will never (2) a restaurant which is empty or half-empty, but the moment I see a place full of happy people (3) their meal – this is it: this is the place where I am going to eat!

Hi Helen,

It's Saturday today and I'm going shopping!

(A) I love shopping because you never know what's going to happen. Every shopping trip is different. Also, you can spend time with your friends. Personally, I don't like shopping for food because it's boring. I love buying clothes, but sometimes I just get a magazine and a snack.

(B) I usually go into town with my friends but sometimes we take the train to Oxford. I like it there because there are more shops.

(C) The last time I went shopping, I bought some jeans for myself and a birthday present for my mum. I got her a gardening book. She loved it! Do you like shopping too?

Love,
Mary

Black Friday is the beginning of Christmas shopping season in the USA. It is the busiest shopping day in the whole year. Most shops offer attractive bargains and big discounts. They usually open very early, sometimes at midnight, to attract more customers. Some people spend the night queuing in front of shops to make sure they grab the best offers.

1 From the text, readers can learn

- A what Black Friday is all about.
- B where to go shopping on Black Friday.
- C what customers buy on Black Friday.

Forget Black Friday – celebrate Buy Nothing Day instead! Don't go buying unnecessary things just because they're cheap! Think about what things you really need. You'll help save the planet and you'll save money as well 😊 Take part in a Buy Nothing Hike: go for a walk around the park, have a picnic and spend time with friends. Or, join in a Zombie Walk: walk around a shopping centre, acting like a zombie. Are you in?

2 Both texts (A and B) are about

- A finding the best bargains.

Hi Gary,

Thanks for your email! I'm so glad you're coming to Poland. I'll be here then and I'd love to meet you too. Would you like to come and stay with me and my parents for the weekend?

October is a good time to visit, because the weather will be nice. If you're coming from Warsaw, a good way to get here is by train. The trains are nice and not too expensive.

There are lots of nice things we could do. For example, we could go for a walk in the park – the leaves have nice colours at that time of the year. Or why don't we spend a nice afternoon in my favourite café? In the evening, how about going to the cinema?

Let me know what you think of my suggestions!

Bye for now!

Love,

Tereska

GREAT AMERICAN HOLIDAY VACATION

If you are British and travel to the USA, there may be times when you feel out of place. Even though the two countries share a lot of history and speak the same language (do they?), there are some cultural differences (1)  you should know about. You will probably never get a nice cup of tea (ice tea will be more likely), and everyone will ask you if you have met the Queen. In the US, unlike in Britain, you drive on the right side of the road, so you must be very careful when (2)  the street. Moreover, Americans drive almost everywhere – in some places you will never see anyone (3)  anywhere on foot. Another thing is language – they may have a problem understanding some British expressions. Don't get surprised if you order chips but get crisps instead or realise you are suddenly discussing American football league (across the ocean you are actually a soccer fan).

4 Work in pairs or groups. Discuss the answers to the questions.

- Do you know any of the American words in exercise 3? Where do you know them from?
- Do you watch more American or British films and television series?
- Do you listen more often to American or British music?
- Is British or American English easier to understand for you? Why?

5 OPEN TASK Uzupełnij luki w poniższych minidialogach (1–4) tak, aby otrzymać logiczne i spójne wypowiedzi. Odpowiedzi zapisz w zeszycie.

WYPOWIEDŹ PISEMNA – WSKAZÓWKI

W wypowiedzi pisemnej ważne są takie elementy, jak: treść, spójność i logika, bogactwo środków językowych oraz poprawność gramatyczna i ortograficzna. Najważniejsze jednak jest to, by odnieść się do wszystkich punktów polecenia i odpowiednio je rozwinąć, mieszcząc się jednocześnie w podanym limicie słów.

PAMIĘTAJ! Warto najpierw sporządzić plan pracy, uwzględniając wszystkie informacje, a następnie napisać ją na brudno. Przed przepisaniem pracy sprawdź, czy przekazałeś/przekazałaś w niej wszystkie informacje, czy nie zawiera ona błędów i czy twój tekst jest spójny i logiczny.

TREŚĆ

- Pamiętaj, aby odnieść się do wszystkich informacji zawartych w poleceniu.
- Każdą informację przekaż w osobnym akapicie. Informacje zwykle warto przekazywać w takiej kolejności, w jakiej są one podane w treści zadania.
- Rozwiń każdą informację o dodatkowe szczegóły pasujące do tematu – możesz np. opisać swoje doświadczenia, wyrazić opinię lub podać przykłady.
- Przed rozpoczęciem pisania zrób notatki, zapisując swoje pomysły na rozwinięcie każdego punktu.
- Przed oddaniem pracy sprawdź liczbę wyrazów – jeśli twój tekst jest zbyt długi, przeczytaj ponownie treść zadania i wykreśl zbędne informacje. Jeśli wypowiedź jest zbyt krótka, zastanów się, w jaki sposób możesz dodatkowo rozwinąć informacje podane w treści zadania.

SPÓJNOŚĆ I LOGIKA WYPOWIEDZI

- Przed napisaniem pracy sporządź plan swojej wypowiedzi. Możesz to zrobić w języku polskim.
- Zwróć uwagę na gatunek tekstu – czy jest to e-mail, list, wpis na blogu, notatka itp.
- Zadbaj o logiczne połączenie ze sobą kolejnych akapitów, tak aby praca stanowiła spójną całość. Stosuj różne spójniki np. although, because, also oraz then.
- Zastanów się, czy wszystkie informacje są przekazane w zrozumiały sposób, pomimo ewentualnych błędów językowych.

ZAKRES ŚRODKÓW JĘZYKOWYCH

- Przeczytaj polecenie i treść zadania. Zastanów się, jakich zwrotów w języku angielskim możesz użyć, aby przekazać intencje zawarte w zadaniu, np. aby wyrazić prośbę, przedstawić propozycję, wyjaśnić jakąś sytuację.
- W swojej wypowiedzi stosuj różnorodne struktury gramatyczne.
- Dbaj o precyzyjne przekazywanie informacji i używanie zróżnicowanego słownictwa związanego z tematem, np. gdy opisujesz dom rodzinny, używaj słów typu furniture, living room, lawn.
- Unikaj powtórzeń. Po napisaniu pracy przeczytaj ją ponownie. Jeżeli znajdziesz powtarzające się wyrazy, postaraj się je zastąpić synonimami.
- Unikaj przymiotników pospolitych, np. zamiast good i nice – możesz użyć przymiotników perfect, wonderful lub amazing.

POPRAWNOŚĆ ŚRODKÓW JĘZYKOWYCH

- Zawsze zaczynaj od pisania na brudno.
- Po napisaniu pracy przeczytaj ją ponownie, aby sprawdzić, czy nie zawiera ona błędów leksykalnych, ortograficznych lub gramatycznych. Sprawdź, czy:
 - użyłeś/użyłaś odpowiedniego słownictwa, które pasuje do tematu;
 - wszystkie wyrazy zapisane są poprawnie;
 - wyrazy zostały użyte w odpowiedniej formie. Jeżeli na przykład piszesz o wydarzeniu, które miało miejsce w przeszłości, zwróć uwagę na to, czy użyłeś/użyłaś czasowników w formie przeszłej.

Wiadomość e-mail

 Niedawno w twojej szkole odbył się kiermasz świąteczny. W e-mailu do kolegi/koleżanki z USA:

- opisz, na czym polegał kiermasz;
- napisz, co najbardziej ci się podobało;
- zapytaj kolegę/koleżankę, jak obchodzą święta Bożego Narodzenia w jego/jej szkole.

E-mail powinien zawierać od 50 do 120 słów

Przykładowa wypowiedź

Aby płynnie przejść do omawiania punktów, możesz użyć np. takiego wyrażenia.

Pamiętaj o przecinkach w tych miejscach.

Zakończ swój e-mail zwrotem typowym dla tego rodzaju wypowiedzi.

 New message

Hi Susan,

Thanks for your letter. It was great to hear from you!

I want to tell you about a Christmas fair we had in our school last week. Before the fair, we'd made some Christmas decorations which our parents could buy at the fair. The money we got for the decorations is for charity. The fair ended with a great concert. It was the best part for me because everyone sang Christmas carols.

Pity you couldn't hear us!

And how is your school celebrating Christmas?

Have you got any ideas we could use next year?

Write soon,

XYZ

Wypowiedź zacznij tak, jak zaczyna się prawdziwy e-mail, nie rozpoczynaj od udzielania odpowiedzi na pytania. Pamiętaj jednak, że wstęp musi być krótki, 10–15 słów.

Używaj zwrotów do adresata, jak w prawdziwym e-mailu. Możesz używać niepełnych zdań.

QUICK CHECK ✓

- Jakie informacje do pierwszych dwóch punktów z polecenia podaje autor e-maila?
- Jak rozwinięty jest ostatni punkt?
- Które słowa z e-maila uznałbyś/uznałabyś za wyszukane?
