Twoje mocne strony

Druga Nowa Era

Nigdy hmy nie publikowała publicznie książek wydawnictw, które działają na uczciwych zasadach.

Wasza firma jednak promuje masowy druk, całkowicie niepotrzebnych książek, które mogłyby zastąpione wersjami elektronicznymi!

Co prawda e-booki są dostępne na waszej stronie, jednak:

- W przeciwieństwie do fizycznej książki, licencja na e-book kończy się po roku. Oznacza to, że jeżeli moja córka chciałaby powtórzyć sobie całą wiedzę do matury, musiałabym jej kupić wszystkie wasze książki od nowa.
- Wszelkich e-booków nie da się pobrać! Wymagają one dostęp do internetu, co uniemożliwia ich użycie na naszej wsi, gdzie zasięg jest ograniczony.
- Wasze e-booki sprzedawane są po tej samej (albo wyższej) cenie co regularne książki. Cena e-booka powinna być niższa, gdyż e-booki wymagają elektronicznego czytnika (tabletu)!

Czas rozpocząć nową erę (o ironio), w której papier nie jest bezcennie marnowany dla pieniędzy. Przedstawiam e-book, który spełnia wszystkie oczekiwania uczniów!

Dbajmy o środowisko, zróbmy to dla młodych pokoleń.

The school year runs from September until May. Lots of schools have two semesters: autumn (September–December) and spring (January–May). There are no uniforms at our school, of course, but we do have a dress code. There are some clothes you can't wear. We don't have many tests or exams. We write essays in English and do project work in science. We have algebra, reading, writing and spelling every day. Everyone plays a musical instrument or is a member of a sports team. You choose at least one extra class. Teachers use computers during lessons to give presentations and show films. We have textbooks, which we borrow from the library for a year. We do lots of our homework at school. Grades are as follow: A, B, C, D (pass) and F (fail). We have a big test in every subject at the end of the school year.

Hello, everyone. As you know, I'm spending two weeks with my friend in Bristol. It is one of the greenest cities in the UK. It is clean and bike-friendly. There are also a lot of local, eco-friendly shops, where you can buy everyday items. I recommend Go Green, especially when planning a visit to Gloucester Road.

Make sure to take your own shopping bags, as well as glass or plastic containers. You can buy eco-friendly washing up liquid, shower gel or soap. There are also lots of toiletries like shampoos and conditioners.

You can fill up your jars and boxes with cereals, pasta, rice, nuts, seeds and flour. You can even make your own nut milk! The shop also sells plastic-free water bottles, coffee cups, bamboo straws and reusable knives and forks. With Go Green there's a chance to do something positive for the environment.

The big school trip

Dear Parents,
In two days, Class 5 are going on a school trip to the Alps. The Alps are, of course, a very beautiful place – but every mountain, every waterfall and every valley can be dangerous. The Alps are in Europe, but they can be as dangerous as the Himalayas. So, before we leave, we would like to give you some important information. The children should take a pair of good, strong shoes with them. They should also have clothes which are good for any kind of weather – rainy or sunny, hot or cold. The children shouldn't forget to take their passports – they need them to cross the borders – their school ID card is not enough. It is also important to give your children a piece of paper with a contact number – they can't go on the trip without these things. And one more thing – which is very, very important – don't be late! We are travelling there by train, and the train leaves at 8 am!

That was great, but I (3) receive/received a message from the school yesterday, and now we need some more things. Can you buy a sun (4) shirt/hat for Jack? I think the mountains are very hot (5) in/at this time of year. Emily already has one, so (6) buy/don't buy a hat for her. The other thing we need is biscuits. Sally's expensive school year

I am sitting at the desk in my bedroom at the moment. It is hot in the city, but I am thinking about the last nine months at school. This year was a great school year, but there was a lot of hard work.

In September, my favourite subject was English. Now, after a long school year, I have two new subjects that I really love – geography and history. I still like English of course, because the teacher taught us a lot, and in a very interesting way, too. I think my writing is good now! I am looking at my pencil case and the books on my desk now. I remember my visits to the bookshop next to school. I have twenty seven pens and pencils that I bought there this year, and I have thirteen books! The books are not school books, but stories and some animal and nature books.

Did you go to the bookshop after school? What did you buy there? Was it an expensive school year?

Grammar Bank

Unit 1

Present Simple

patrz str. 10, 17

- Przypomnij sobie budowę czasu present simple:

Twierdzenia

Przeczenia

Pytania

I/You/We/They play the piano. I/You/We/They don't play the piano. Do I/you/We/They play the piano?
He/She/It plays the piano. He/She/It doesn't play the piano. Does he/she/it play the piano?

- Czas present simple to czas teraźniejszy. Używamy go do mówienia o regularnie wykonywanych czynnościach, które się powtarzają albo trwają cały czas, oraz o zwyczajach, tradycjach i faktach, np.:
I often go to school by bus. (czynność, która się powtarza)
We live in Poland. (sytuacja trwająca cały czas)
Suzy eats a lot of chocolate. (przyzwyczajenie)
The word 'play' means 'grać'. (fakt)

- W czasie present simple używamy takich określeń, jak:

- ○ ○ ○ never – nigdy
- ○ ○ ○ sometimes – czasami
- ● ○ ○ often – często
- ● ● ○ usually – zwykle
- ● ● ● always – zawsze

Określenia te wstawiamy najczęściej przed czasownikiem, np.: He often goes to the cinema.
Jeśli używamy ich w zdaniu z czasownikiem być (to be), stawiamy je po czasowniku, np.: I am never late for school.

- Stosując czas present simple, dodajemy do większości czasowników 3 osobie l. poj. (he, she, it) końcówkę -s, np.:

play ► plays watch ► watches.

Zapamiętaj! Istnieją też określone zasady dodawania końcówki -s.

- Jeśli czasownik kończy się na -o/-s/-ss/-sh/-ch lub -x, dodajemy -es, np.: go ► goes
- Jeśli czasownik kończy się na spółgłoskę, po której występuje y, zamieniamy -y na -i oraz dodajemy -es, np.: try ► tries
- Jeśli czasownik kończy się na samogłoskę, po której występuje -y, zostawiamy końcówkę -s bez zmian, np.: enjoy ► enjoys in, on, at, for, from ... to

patrz str. 14, 17

- Słowa at, in, on stosujemy, aby określić związek czasowy pomiędzy innymi wyrazami w zdaniu.

Zapamiętaj!

AT	- dokładna godzina - święta i czas wolny - określenia: night, midnight, the moment	at 6 o'clock, at 11.00 at Christmas, at Easter, at the weekend at night, at midnight, at the moment

IN	• pory dnia • miesiące • lata • wiek • pory roku	in the morning, in the evening in October in 2022 in the 21st century in the summer
ON	• dni tygodnia • daty • pory dnia z podaniem dnia tygodnia	on Sundays on September 20th on Monday morning

- Istnieje jeszcze wiele innych słów i wyrażeń, którymi możemy określać czas trwania jakiegoś wydarzenia, np.: for – przez (jakiś czas), np.: We usually go on holidays for one week.
from ... to – od ... do, np.: I have lessons from 8 am to 3 pm.

Unit 2

love, like, hate + -ing

patrz str. 22, 29

- Jeżeli chcemy powiedzieć, że coś lubimy, kochamy lub czegoś nienawidzimy robić, często w języku polskim używamy dwóch czasowników obok siebie, np.: Lubię tańczyć. W języku angielskim po słowach: like, love, hate stosujemy czasownik z końcówką -ing, np.:
I don't like going to the dentist. We love cooking. Fiona hates doing homework.

Zapamiętaj! Istnieją określone zasady dotyczące poprawnej pisowni czasowników z końcówką -ing.

- ▶ Jeśli czasownik kończy się na -e, usuwamy je i dodajemy -ing, np.: hope ► hoping.
- ▶ Jeśli czasownik kończy się na -y, dodajemy końcówkę -ing i zostawiamy go bez zmian, np.: fly ► flying.
- ▶ Jeśli czasownik kończy się na -ie, zamieniamy końcówkę na -y i dodajemy -ing, np.: lie ► lying.
- ▶ Jeśli czasownik kończy się na spółgłoskę, a przed nią stoi samogłoska, podwajamy tę spółgłoskę, np.: stop ► stopping.

a, an, the oraz tzw. zero article

patrz str. 26, 29

Przed rzeczownikami w języku angielskim bardzo często występują tzw. przedimki: a, an lub the.

- a lub an używamy, jeśli wspominamy o czymś po raz pierwszy i jest to rzeczownik, który możemy policzyć, np.: a room, an apple.
- Zapamiętajcie, że a używamy przed rzeczownikami zaczynającymi się od spółgłoski, np.: a bike, an przed rzeczownikami zaczynającymi się od samogłoski, np.: an armchair.

Zapamiętaj! W tym wypadku ważna jest wymowa, a nie pisownia, np.: a university (u to samogłoska, ale wymawiamy ją jako j czyli spółgłoskę).

- Jeśli mówimy o czymś po raz drugi, przed rzeczownikiem wstawiamy the. Jest to sygnał, że jest nam to już znane, np.: the room (wiemy, o który pokój chodzi).
- Zdarzają się sytuacje, w których przed rzeczownikiem nie wstawiamy żadnego przedimka, mówimy wtedy o tzw. zero article (przedimku zerowym).
 - ▶ Przedimków nie stawiamy m.in. przed nazwami dni tygodnia, miesięcy i pór roku (on Friday, in September, in spring), imionami i nazwiskami (Jan Kowalski), nazwami posiłków (lunch, breakfast) i nazwami świąt (Easter, Christmas).
 - ▶ Przedimków nie stawiamy przed rzeczownikami w liczbie mnogiej (posters) ani tam, gdzie przed rzeczownikiem występują słowa: my, his, their itd. (np.: my room).
 - ▶ Przedimków nie stawiamy przed rzeczownikami niepoliczalnymi, np.: chocolate, water.

Unit 3

Present continuous

patrz str. 34, 41

- Czasu present continuous używamy, kiedy mówimy o tym, co się dzieje w tej chwili, obecnie, np.: I am watching TV now.
- Present continuous składa się z odmienionej formy czasownika to be (am, are, is) oraz z czasownika z końcówką -ing. Końcówka ta występuje w twierdzeniach, przeczeniach i pytaniach.
- Do zdań w czasie present continuous bardzo często dodajemy określenia czasu: now (teraz) i at the moment (w tej chwili). Stawiamy je na początku lub na końcu zdania.

Twierdzenia

I am singing.
You/We/They are singing.
He/She/It is singing.

Przeczenia

I am not singing.
You/We/They are not singing.
He/She/It is not singing.

Pytania

Am I singing?
Are you/we/they singing?
Is he/she/it singing?

- Na pytania zaczynające się od Are you ...? możemy odpowiedzieć krótko: Yes, I am. / No, I'm not.
- Jeśli chcemy zadać pytanie szczegółowe w czasie present continuous, słowo pytające wstawiamy na początku zdania, np.:
What are you doing?, Where are you going?, Who are you talking to?, Why are you smiling?
 Odpowiedź na takie pytania wymaga podania więcej informacji.
- Ucząc się o czasie present continuous, warto sobie przypomnieć zasady dodawania końcówki -ing do czasowników. Są one takie same, jak omówione już w rozdziale 2 zasady stosowania czasowników z -ing po słowach: love, like i hate.

Comparative adjectives – stopień wyższy przymiotników

patrz str. 38, 41

- Do porównywania, np. przedmiotów czy osób, używamy stopnia wyższego przymiotników.
- Zapamiętaj! Istnieją określone zasady dotyczące tworzenia przymiotników w stopniu wyższym.
- ▶ Jeśli przymiotnik ma jedną sylabę, a także wtedy, kiedy ma dwie sylaby i kończy się na -y, dodajemy do przymiotnika -er, np.: nice ▶ nicer, big ▶ bigger.
 - ▶ Jeśli przymiotnik ma trzy sylaby lub więcej, a także jeśli ma dwie sylaby i nie kończy się na -y, dodajemy przed przymiotnikiem słowo more (bardziej) i zostawiamy przymiotnik bez zmian, np.: interesting ▶ more interesting, exciting ▶ more exciting.

Wyjątki! Występuje kilka przymiotników, do których nie odnoszą się powyższe zasady.

Stopnia wyższego tych przymiotników musicie się nauczyć na pamięć:

good – better bad – worse far – farther

- Przymiotniki w stopniu wyższym, do których dodajemy końcówkę -er, mogą wymagać zmian w pisowni. Dzieje się tak w następujących sytuacjach.
- ▶ Jeśli przymiotnik kończy się -e, usuwamy je i dodajemy tylko literę -r, np.: nice ▶ nicer.
- ▶ Jeśli przymiotnik kończy się na spółgłoskę, przed którą występuje samogłoska, podwajamy ostatnią literę, np.: thin ▶ thinner.
- ▶ Jeśli przymiotnik kończy się na -y, a przed -y stoi spółgłoska, zamieniamy -y na -i oraz dodajemy końcówkę -er, np.: funny ▶ funnier.
- ▶ Aby porównywać osoby, przedmioty i zjawiska, używaj słowa than (niż), np. I am shorter than my parents.
- ▶ Jeśli chcesz powiedzieć, że coś jest takie samo jak coś innego, użyj konstrukcji as ... as. Przymiotnik pozostaw w stopniu równym, nie zmieniaj jego końcówki np.: I am as tall as my sister.

would like/would like to

patrz str. 46, 53

- Zwrot would like wyraża nasze pragnienia i marzenia. Służy do mówienia o tym, czego chcemy, ale jest grzeczniejszą formą niż czasownik want. Konstrukcji would like bardzo często używamy, kiedy coś komuś proponujemy lub o coś prosimy.
- Po would like stawiamy rzeczownik, np.: I would like a piece of cake lub czasownik, ale koniecznie poprzedzony słowem to, np.: I would like to eat some pizza.
- W twierdzeniach stosujemy konstrukcję would like (to) i używamy jej w takiej samej formie dla wszystkich osób w liczbie pojedynczej (I, you, he, she, it) i w mnogiej (we, you, they) np.: We would like a hamburger./She would like to find the answer to this question.
- W przeczeniach dodajemy słowo not po would, np.: They would not like to find the answers to this question. Najczęściej skracamy wyrażenie would not do wouldn't.
- Pytania tworzymy, stawiając słowo would przed głównym rzeczownikiem w zdaniu (podmiotem), np.: Would you like to stay at home?/What would you like to get for your birthday?

Rzeczowniki policzalne i niepoliczalne oraz many, much, a few, a little, other i another

patrz str. 50, 53

- Rzeczowniki dzielimy na policzalne i niepoliczalne.
- Rzeczowniki policzalne nazywają obiekty, które możemy policzyć na sztuki, np.:

a pen

a tree

a cat

- Rzeczowniki niepoliczalne nazywają elementy, których nie możemy policzyć bez dodawania słów typu kawałek, kilogram, litr itp. Uczuć także nie da się policzyć. Przykładami rzeczowników niepoliczalnych są: water, cheese, sugar, bread, gold, love itp.
- Jeśli chcemy ogólnie określić liczbę elementów, które możemy policzyć, wstawiamy słowo many (wiele) lub wyrażenie a few (kilka) przed rzeczownikiem, np.: many presents, a few bananas.
- Jeśli chcemy ogólnie określić ilość elementów, których nie możemy policzyć, używamy słowa much (dużo) lub wyrażenia a little (trochę) przed rzeczownikiem, np.: much time, a little water.
- Cechy charakterystyczne rzeczowników policzalnych i niepoliczalnych.

Rzeczowniki policzalne (Countable nouns)	Rzeczowniki niepoliczalne (Uncountable nouns)
Możemy je policzyć.	Nie możemy ich policzyć (bez użycia dodatkowych słów).
Mają liczbę mnogą.	Nie mają liczby mnogiej.
Możemy wstawić przed nimi przedimki a/an .	Nie możemy wstawić przed nimi przedimków a/an .
Możemy je poprzedzić określeniami some, a lot of .	Możemy je poprzedzić określeniami some, a lot of .
Możemy je poprzedzić określeniami many, a few .	Możemy je poprzedzić określeniami much, a little .

Other i another

patrz str. 51, 53

Słówka other i another wyglądają podobnie, jednak istnieją pomiędzy nimi ważne różnice.

- another oznacz drugi, kolejny, inny, jeszcze jeden. Tego słowa używamy tylko w liczbie pojedynczej, jeśli rzeczownik jest policzalny, np.: Can I have another glass of juice?
- other oznacza inne. Tego słowa używamy z liczbą mnogą rzeczowników policzalnych lub z rzeczownikami niepoliczalnymi, np.: Would you like to wear some other shoes?

Unit 5

Should

patrz str. 58, 65

- Czasownik should służy do udzielania komuś porad, a także do wyrażania opinii na jakiś temat, np.: You are hungry. You should eat something.
- W zdaniach twierdzących should używamy z wybranym czasownikiem w formie podstawowej, np.: I should eat something.
- W przeczeniach dodajemy not po czasowniku should, np.: We should not eat now. Najczęściej skracamy wyrażenie should not do shouldn't.
- W pytaniach wstawiamy słowo should przed głównym rzeczownikiem w zdaniu (podmiotem), np.: Should we eat something now?*

Gerund (rzeczownik z końcówką -ing)

patrz str. 62, 65

- Jeśli do czasownika dodamy końcówkę -ing, otrzymamy rzeczownik nazywany w języku angielskim gerund.
- Wiele czasowników możemy zmienić w rzeczownik, np.: swimming (pływanie), riding a bike (jeżdżenie na rowerze), skiing (jeżdżenie na nartach), walking (spacerowanie), running (bieganie).
- Gerund nie zmienia swojej formy, nie odmienia się przez osoby ani czasy, zawsze wygląda tak samo.
- Formy gerund stosujemy w następujących sytuacjach:
 - ▶ po czasowniku go, np.: I go fishing, We often go cycling, She never goes running.
 - ▶ po czasownikach like, don't like, love i hate, np.: I love dancing.
 - ▶ na początku zdania (jako podmiotu), np.: Dancing is fantastic!*

Unit 6

Past simple czasownika „być”: to be (was/were)

patrz str. 70, 77

- Czas past simple to czas przeszły. Używamy go, kiedy mówimy o czynnościach, które miały miejsce w przeszłości i już się zakończyły, np.: Last year I was in Italy.
- Czasownik to be (być) w past simple odmienia się w następujący sposób:
I/He/She/It was hungry.
You/We/They were hungry.
- W przeczeniach dodajemy słówko not, np.: I was not at home./We were not at home. Możemy też stosować skrócone formy przeczeń: was not ▶ wasn't i were not ▶ weren't.
- Pytania tworzymy, przestawiając kolejność słów: was/were stawiamy przed podmiotem, np.: Was she at home?/Were you at home?*

Past simple (czasowniki regularne)

patrz str. 74, 77

- W czasie past simple istnieją czasowniki regularne i nieregularne.
- Twierdzenia w past simple tworzymy, dodając do czasownika regularnego końcówkę -ed, np.: play ► played want ► wanted dance ► danced look ► looked
- W pytaniach używamy słowa did, które wstawiamy przed głównym rzeczownikiem w zdaniu (podmiotem), a czasownik zostawiamy w formie podstawowej, np.: Did you want it?/Did they walk there?
- W przeczeniach też pojawia się did, ale dodajemy do niego jeszcze not. Czasownik zostaje bez zmian, np.: We did not jump. / I did not dance. Możemy stosować skrócone formy: did not ► didn't

Twierdzenia

I/You/We/They/He/She/It played with me yesterday.

Przeczenia

I/You/We/They/He/She/It didn't play with me yesterday.

Pytania

Did I/you/we/they/he/she/it play with you yesterday?

Zapamiętaj! Tworząc czasowniki w czasie past simple, musicie pamiętać o zasadach ortograficznych.

- Jeśli czasownik kończy się na -e, dodajemy tylko -d, np.: invite ► invited.
Jeśli czasownik kończy się na -y, a przed nim stoi spółgłoska, zmieniamy -y na -i oraz dodajemy -ed, np.: cry ► cried.
- Jeśli czasownik kończy się na -y, a przed nim stoi samogłoska, dodajemy końcówkę -ed, np.: enjoy ► enjoyed.
- Jeśli czasownik ma jedną sylabę i kończy się na spółgłoskę, a przed nią występuje samogłoska, podwajamy ostatnią literę, np.: plan ► planned.

Unit 7

Past simple (czasowniki nieregularne)

patrz str. 82, 89

- Form past simple czasowników nieregularnych musicie nauczyć się na pamięć, np.: I ate a big pizza.
 - Oto wybrane czasowniki nieregularne w czasie past simple i ich znaczenie w języku polskim:
- | | | | |
|------------------------|----------------------|----------------------|-------------------|
| buy ► bought | kupować | meet ► met | spotykać |
| drive ► drove | prowadzić (samochód) | ride ► rode | jeździć (rowerem) |
| eat ► ate | jeść | run ► ran | biec |
| forget ► forgot | zapominać | see ► saw | widzieć |
| go ► went | iść | sleep ► slept | spać |
| have ► had | mieć | swim ► swam | pływać |
| make ► made | robić | take ► took | brać |
- W czasie past simple czasownik zmienia swoją formę tylko w zdaniach twierdzących. W zdaniach przeczących i w pytaniach czasownik zawsze ma formę podstawową, np.:
We didn't write that book. Did you buy a new pair of trousers?

one, ones

patrz str. 86, 89

- Słowo one zastępuje użyty już raz rzeczownik, np.: I live in a small house, but I would like to live in a big one. Dzięki temu nie musimy powtarzać słowa house.
- One może zastępować rzeczownik policzalny w liczbie pojedynczej.
- One używamy tylko, jeśli wcześniej pojawił się już właściwy rzeczownik i nie chcemy go powtarzać.
- Jeśli chcemy zastąpić rzeczownik w liczbie mnogiej, używamy słowa ones, np.: I don't like green apples. I prefer red ones.
- Bardzo często słowa one i ones pojawiają się w takich wyrażeniach, jak:
this one (ten/ta/to itd.) that one (tamten/tamta/tamtó itd.) which one? (który?/która?/które? itd.)
the one/ones (ten/ta/to; te/ci właśnie itd.).
